FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Susan Hynd, a fall semester graduate at Eastern Illinois University, is the first recipient of the Rudolph D. Anfinson Scholarship.

Juniors, seniors and graduate students are eligible for consideration for the scholarship, named in honor of Dr. Anfinson, a faculty member for 37 years at Eastern before his retirement.

Criteria for selection include outstanding character, high scholastic achievement, and participation in extra curricular activities. The scholarship includes a certificate and a stipend.

The scholarship was funded in the EIU Foundation by the late Mrs. Ralph Widener, Sr., and her son, Dr. Ralph Widener, Jr. Widener is a 1948 Eastern graduate and a retired speech professor at the University of Texas at Arlington.

Anfinson, now a Charleston businessman, was director of veterans' service when Widener, a World War II veteran, was enrolled at Eastern.

The certificate and check were presented when Miss Hynd returned to campus after student teaching in Naperville.
